

Multi-Grammy winner Keb' Mo' may have been born in LA (no, not Lower Alabama) but he sure knows how to play the Mississippi Delta blues. His influences - from Robert Johnson (who Keb' recently portrayed in a docu-drama) to Bonnie Raitt and Jackson Browne - can easily be seen in his soulful rhythms and laconic storytelling style. Come an hour early for BBQ plates by Dreamland and music by Microwave Dave in the courtyard. The Alys Stephens Center is located on the UAB campus at 1200 10th Ave. South, Birmingham. The Blues and BBQ Fest continues Sunday night with the Taj Mahal Trio.

Cost: $22-$52, students $10. Food and cash bar extra.
