

If you do have a moment, and a couple of cans of non-perishable food, you might want to drive on over to Brookwood Mall, pull up next to the Applebee's, and drop them off. You've got until 7 p.m. this evening so there's really not a reason that you couldn't stop on by.

It's sponsored by NBC 13, 102.5 FM, The Salvation Army and the United Way Community Food Bank and it's quite appropriate given the time of year that we're in.
