

The Birmingham Jazz String Quartet (led by Jerome Chapman) will grace the stage of the historic Carver Theatre on November 26, giving you a great way to wind down after a busy holiday weekend. Attendees will have the chance to perform with the ensemble after the first hour. According to the Carver Theatre/Alabama Jazz Hall of Fame website describes the group using the following words:

The Birmingham Jazz String Quartet is a group of local musicians dedicated to the performance and preservation of string jazz. Influences include Django Reinhardt, Stephane Grappelli, and the Hot Club of Paris Quintette and others. The band plays in the style known as Gypsy Jazz. The Quartet includes Allen Bartow, Bethany Borg, Abraham Becker, and Jerome Chapman.

Cost: $5

Location:

Carver Theatre
1631 4th Avenue North (directions)