the express, The Terminal's weekly newsletter, made its debut in inboxes throughout metro Birmingham and the world yesterday afternoon. The weekly email gives subscribers a chance to know some of what's going on behind the scenes of Birmingham's hub for conversation while occasionally giving you a heads up about happenings around town.

We've made subscribing for this service very easy; we're simply asking that you use the box that is currently in the middle column of our front page. If you missed the first one coming into your box, you'll be happy to know that we're currently operating as a beta tester for iContactCommunity - here's our profile. This service allows you to not only see the html edition of the publication, it lets you comment on the piece, vote for it, pass it along to friends and of course, provide another spot for you to subscribe.

Sign up, test it out, and let us know what you think. We'll have some more announcements in the coming days.
