

A quick note for those of you who have not voted as of yet today...

When you arrive at your voting location, you'll eventually be handed a ballot. When you fill the ballot out, you must:

- Select the candidate that you're going to vote for, and
- Select the delegates that correspond with your candidate (e.g. if you vote for Obama, don't vote for Edwards' delegates). You may choose no more than 8 delegates total for your candidate (that's 4 men and 4 women). Double check before you leave otherwise your vote may not count.

Then, relax, enjoy the warm weather, and wait for the results...
