

André Natta/The Terminal

We're posting this a little later than we wanted to... but we wanted to be sure that you were aware of just what you're missing if you're not showing up at Vulcan Park's Collective Perspectives series on Tuesdays this month.

Here's a taste of this week's performance by Miles College's jazz band, the Milestones:

Next week's presentation will feature short films created by UAB Ethnographic Filmmaking course. Check out our destinations calendar entry for more information. We look forward to seeing you there.
