

So what does this classic Birmingham, AL sign have to do with The Terminal? Everything...

I teased in this week's newsletter about the beginning of a new series over on my Birmingham that focuses on this classic sign and the words written over the doors of the Birmingham City Council chambers - The People are The City.

Click here to read my reasons for introducing this unique way to spotlight individuals in The Magic City.