

That's the Magic City Question that we pose to you this week. Click here to add your answer to the mix...

(If you answer here, we'll have to move it over there, and that just takes away from us being able to get more news up ).

Susannah Felts submitted the question to us - after seeing the responses that the guys over at Gapers Block got after they posted it in their Fuel section. Incidentally, Felts will be having a book signing event tomorrow evening at The Bottletree - one of two for her first novel. Trav interviewed her to find out some more about the book and it's now up on Timetable - check it out.

FYI - you can now get a taste of what's going on around the site by checking out the central column of our front page - that is, if you're normally reading us via RSS or email. We figured you'd like that one-stop shop idea.
