

It's time for the Sweetest 'Stache contest here in Birmingham. You can visit the Mustaches for Kids website to learn more about how this competition came to be and who benefits from the growth of facial hair for four weeks. Growing season in this case will be from April 1 - May 1, with a kick-off Clean Shaven Day party happening at The Bottletree on April Fool's Day. Our effort will benefit Children's Hospital in New Orleans.

There will be Mustache Checkpoint Days around town throughout the month at area bars (April 10, 17 & 24 @ 8 p.m.). I'm sure that we'll get more information about the location of these events later on, though we do know that the one on the 17th will be at Rojo.

Come on, any chance to take part in a competition that includes being recognized for "beer foam retention" - when the 'staches are judged on Thursday, May 1 @ The Bottletree - needs to be shouted from the rooftops...
