

This weekend there will be a lot of folks at the Innovation Depot downtown participating in Birmingham's second ever BarCamp (April 12 information). So you may be asking, "What is BarCamp?" It is our own "un" conference. OK, you probably need a little more info.

It's a conference where the content is provided, chosen and presented by the attendees! It's a great way to meet members of the local technology community and it's FREE! You can sign up to attend and learn more about the sessions that are already being proposed by checking out its website. You may also follow their Twitter feed. You may also want to take a look at some of the sessions that are being proposed, including a chance to hear about some ideas for a certain website...
