

This is your friendly neighborhood reminder that tomorrow evening is our monthly Terminally Happy Hour at The Bottletree! We sat around trying to figure out how to get a few more folks to come on out and join the conversation (especially since there is a Sex and the City preview party tomorrow evening as well courtesy of My Scoop).

So we figured “Why not give away two (2) pairs of weekend passes to City Stages 20?”, and that’s what we’re going to do!

Those that attend tomorrow’s Happy Hour will have a chance to win. This is also the part where I say to keep your eyes open for an announcement in the near future from CS on more names being added to the lineup...

If inclined to let us know if you’re coming tomorrow night (and you’re on Facebook), check out our event listing and RSVP (or just let us know over on Upcoming.org).
