

When we last left our friendly neighborhood blog for the holiday weekend, we teased you about giving away tickets to City Stages 20 this week (we also teased about our upcoming concert in July, but more on that later on)...

Despite some delays this morning, we're now happy to finally invite you to enter our latest contest! We're giving away two \(2\) sets of weekend passes to the music festival each week for the next two weeks.

So don't just sit there, enter for a chance to win (and tell your friends too).
