

We're trying to think of snappy headlines for some of these posts, but there are only so many ways to say certain things... like this one. We could talk about the varying opinions of the Congressman's constituency. We could try to get you to comment below about the issues that should probably come up during this evening's meeting. Instead, we'll just tell you that it's over at the Jefferson County Courthouse in the County Commission chambers beginning at 6 p.m.
