For those not familiar with Squidoo, it's a really cool online tool that allows you to share information about any topic you can possibly think of on one page, called lenses.

Well, one of our fans on Facebook shared their Squidoo page about Birmingham and now we're going to share it with you so you can help it grow.

Got any other websites you want to share with us (or others) you can always post links on the wall of our page on Facebook or you can visit The Rumble and learn of other ways to help us share stuff with others about what's going on.
