

This is probably the first time many of you have seen this as we've been talking about this on our Twitter profile and on Plurk for the past few days. Considering how hot it is today we're thinking that you may just want to come and hang out with some of us over at Cocina Superior beginning at 6 p.m. tonight! There's no rhyme or reason for it (aside from giving our Twitter followers a chance to meet each other), it's just a chance to get together after work.

We plan to start using our profiles on social networking sites and our Twitter feed to notify folks about most of our "impromptu" events and the like in the future. If you want to be in on the list, check out the appropriate icons located under the follow the hub section of our front page! Maybe we'll see you tonight!
