

Missing your Art on the Rocks fix? Wonder what is there for a YP to do in this town? No worries because with fall comes Cocktails in The Gardens at our city's own Botanical Gardens. And really, it's for everyone and anyone who would enjoy a night out under the stars, sipping adult beverages and listening to good music. Each event has a different theme with signature drinks and themed hors d'oeuvres, catered by A Social Affair. For the first event on Sept. 4, the theme is "Mint and Mango Mojitos" with Sweet Saint Caroline performing. I think the gardens is one of the city's true gems but if you don't already where this gem is, you can find the gardens at 2612 Lane Park Road, over by the Zoo.

Cost: Free for members (membership starts at $45) and $10 for non-members. Cash bar.

Here's the complete lineup:
