

I've got dishes to wash, two loads of laundry to fold, garbage to take to the alley ... I know it's not just me. We're all so busy these days. But the weekend, oh, it really should be time for us to do the stuff we want. Be sure to carve out some you time and if you got the little ones, some family time.

Head over to Timetable to see if any of my suggestions will be good use of your time.