

Good morning everybody. We're doing a rare Sunday post to say hello from Vulcan Park while we're doing morning sessions for day 2 of WordCamp Birmingham.

We're doing our morning sessions from their meeting space in the museum in advance of this afternoon's first Vulcan After Tunes session (the gates are opening at 3 p.m.). Amy LaVere will be rocking atop Red Mountain today. You can enjoy the Memphis-based songstress (and upright bass player) while enjoying some Terrapin Beer. It's a gorgeous day out there too.
