

A reminder that Birmingham hosts the nation's largest and oldest Veteran's Day Parade this afternoon (Tuesday) in the city center. It will begin at 1:30 p.m.

We don't have a pretty graphic showing you the route, but John Morse has created a parade route map for you with Google Maps and the official parade \(and celebration\) website has turn for turn directions for you to check out. Thanks to all of our armed forces, past and present, for all that they do.
