

There are a few people that are wondering what's going on at NBC 13. The station is undergoing an overhaul of its news department. The Birmingham News outlined some of the changes in an article on July 4.

The current changes include the departure of Fran Curry from the station. She has been replaced by Gina Redmond, the former host of their morning and midday broadcasts. Redmond will be replaced by former Fox 6 anchor Andrea Lindenberg and NBC 13 alum Rod Carter. Plans also call for an return to an illuminated presence atop Red Mountain, with an NBC peacock being installed next to the Fox 6 WBRC neon sign.