

Many in metro Birmingham and across the country will breathe a collective sigh of relief on January 9 as Girl Scout cookies go on sale. Sure you've got until March 7, but you know you've been craving Thin Mints for a while now...

Our local Girl Scouts organization has also let us know that there's yet another option this year for our collective sweet teeth - Dulce de Leche. We figure you'll have questions, so visit the Girl Scouts of North Central Alabama site to get them answered (plus you'll learn how this program benefits the young ladies involved). Go ahead and bookmark it too since you know you want to order on Friday...

Photo: Wikipedia