

... at least for now. A bill that would have delayed the switch from analog to digital television until June 12 did not get the votes necessary for passage in the House of Representatives earlier today. This is after the Senate had unanimously approved it on Monday evening. So for the time being, we've only got 20 days left to enjoy Fox 6's FM simulcast on 87.7 FM.