

We've known for some time (well, some of us have) that Alabama State Representative Mary Moore has wanted City Council representation on the BJCC's board. Well, yesterday she decided to make those comments again during the BJCC Board meeting and had some words with the city's current representation on the board, Mayor Larry Langford. Apparently, a lot of words.

I've got some words about the situation of my own today over on My Birmingham.
