

The Tutwiler Hotel celebrated the completion of the majority of its $9 million renovation with the citizens of Birmingham during a ribbon cutting ceremony on Thursday evening. The event marked the completion of upgrades to the interior and exterior public areas and the guest room.s and served as the beginning of a weekend aimed at introducing longtime visitors and the curious to the changes to the former Ridgely Apartments building. The Birmingham Heritage Band will be performing on the Richard Arrington, Jr. Blvd. side of the property this morning beginning at 11:30 a.m. and the property will hold an open house on Saturday, April 28, from 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. (convenient for those attending the Magic City Art Connection in nearby Linn Park).

The owners of the property, Integral Hospitality Solutions, still plan on completing build out of suites on the top level and plan to eventually lease retail property on the ground floor though according to a recent article in the Birmingham Business Journal, these portions of the project are on hold for at least three months.