

I'll admit I didn't know what that term meant . until a recent consulting trip out to Colorado (and based on this, I may never get a chance to know). Now, it's become one of the most popular terms associated with our national economic crisis. Now, Stimulus Watch you can track the progress of the \$69 million dollars worth of projects that the city submitted for federal funding...

We thought you'd like that ability. Go ahead and share your votes and thoughts on the individual items. The website's homepage provides more information about how you can do just that as well as why it exists.