

Driving down 1st Avenue North in Woodlawn away from downtown and looking off to your left just before you drive under I 20/59 will have you checking out the recently rebuilt McDonald's (it's been a while too since it re-opened, so don't feel too bad if you didn't notice it before).

What you may not have noticed was the signage on the building announcing that it would soon become one of the metro area locations for McDonald's latest foray into staying relevant in the fast food world - McCafé. We're not sure how many more locations are preparing to open in metro Birmingham, but just the fact that we've got one is pretty cool. If you do know of others, add their locations to the comments section.
