

If there's nothing that we've learned in the last two years, its the impact that online access has had on the coverage of severe storms. Here's a guide to how to track severe weather here in Birmingham, AL. We'll add more as needed (and suggested).

Twitter:

@ewarn - severe weather updates via ABC 33/40

@CBS42 - The folks are tweeting for Prater (one day he'll have his own - though we don't know if the 1-word forecast would move...)

@richardjacks - NBC 13 meteorologist sharing (also @NBC13)

Online:

Fox 6 - My Fox Storm coverage

NBC 13 - Live stream carries digital weather stream

CBS 42 - Their live stream connection carrying TV coverage

ABC 33/40 - live video coverage streamed on AL.com (RealPlayer required)
