

We've heard from several sources that the former home to Protective Life and the Birmingham Regional Chamber of Commerce among others was in the process of being vacated this month. There has been no explanation as to why all of the tenants of the building have been asked to leave. Those of you that have followed The Terminal during the last almost two years know that our first anniversary celebration was held on the top floor of the building on March 14 last year.

We'll see if we can learn any additional information and update this post accordingly. We'll also see if we can't fill you in on where our second anniversary celebration will be taking place next month in the near future.
