The new look for the WBRC - Fox 6 website appears to be a little more streamlined than its predecessor.

One thing noticeable on under the About Us > Personalities section of the site is the absence of the profiles for Chris Montana, one of the 10 employees that were let go by the Birmingham, AL Fox affiliate late last week. I'll also say that it was weird not to see morning traffic reporter Brooke Allen's profile either...

The station's celebrating its 60th anniversary this year.
