

Shortly after Larry Langford finished his remarks at yesterday's Operation New Birmingham (ONB) Breakfast Briefing, ONB President Michael Calvert eluded to the possibility of another developer possibly announcing plans to build a new hotel on Birmingham's Southside in the near future.

The Birmingham Business Journal provides additional information about this and other announcements made yesterday. We've also heard that the proposed hotel may operate within the Hilton family.