

It's a full month before Earth Day is celebrated, but Birmingham's already providing a couple of opportunities to be "green" this weekend.

Tomorrow the Green Resource Center for Alabama will be hosting its second annual Clover Crawl, being held this year at Vulcan Park. This year's event will include a Green Home & Garden Expo and serve as the drop-off point for this year's Eycling Day activities, courtesy of TechBirmingham. You'll be able to drop off items in the lower parking lot at the site (no TVs please).

For those wanting to partake in the warm weather and take in some greenery, there's the Japanese Gardens Cherry Blossom Viewing at the Birmingham Botanical Gardens tomorrow starting at 11 a.m.

Looking for other more general options, let Jason be your guide over on Timetable.
