

The man that brought Birmingham Hot 107.7 and FM sports talk while overseeing the fading of The X's signal is leaving... for ATL. The Birmingham News says that Dale Daniels will be taking a job outside of the radio market industry after resigning from his position as market manager for Citadel Broadcasting, effective Friday.

Our current poll question in the Newsstand asks if local radio is better or worse because of Daniels' tenure. Let us know what you think; maybe even put a comment or two down here.