

Not really sure of the extent of damage, but we do know that there was a water main break in Birmingham's Norwood community this morning near the intersection of Norwood Boulevard and 16th Avenue North. According to the Birmingham Water Works, a crew is on the way to assess and repaired the situation this afternoon.