

  The Cultural Alliance of Greater Birmingham has recently launched a new directory for educational programs in the greater Birmingham area. The Smart Directory includes listings of in-school presentations, off-site programs and field trips and links to other useful resources for our community's teachers - and those just interested in seeing all that we have available to us in the area.

Image: courtesy of the organization's website