

Sam Davidson is in town this evening at WorkPlay. According to the Remarkablog, he'll be here in Birmingham beginning at 5 p.m. to meet and talk with folks (and hand out swag). Davidson is the president and co-founder of CoolPeopleCare and the creator of the Remarkablog. The blog focuses on telling stories about remarkable people, places and things. The site gives people great ideas to make a difference in five minutes or less everyday. They are one of the inspirations behind what we'd like to become here in the community: a way to find out what's going on and how to do and not just say. We're hoping that one or two of us will be able to show up later on in the evening.

We normally don't just say "go," but this is one you should consider.
