

Not sure if you remember back in June when the aha moment tour came to Birmingham, AL... Well, now they've posted the 75 semi-finalist videos on the project's official website for consideration. We've got until October 15 to make sure that at least one of three videos filmed here in Birmingham is chosen as one of the top 25 finalists. The top 10 chosen from those finalists will be used in Mutual of Omaha's 2010 television campaign. Thanks to Chris Osborne, one of the subjects of the three videos, for sharing the information earlier this month via Twitter.

Looks like we've got some videos to watch soon...
