

This morning I received the following message from the COO of Fire + Ice restaurants, Hol Hustus in response to our email to them and yesterday's post about the status of the Five Points South location:

"Thanks for the e-mail. Unfortunately the restaurant has recently closed. The owners plan on making some changes and re-opening in a few months. We will try to keep you posted through out website and e-mails.

Thanks again."

Sounds like we'll know what's coming next in that spot soon. Thanks to Hol for the prompt reply.
