

I figured that would get your attention here on a Friday afternoon as you're getting ready to enjoy a mostly rain-free weekend.

I thought you'd like it if we told you now instead of waiting until Monday to do so...

There are no plans to post anything - and I mean ANYTHING - about the pending Federal trial of Birmingham Mayor Larry Langford - until a conclusion to the matter is determined. Well, except for the piece I'll ~~post tomorrow morning~~ that was posted early Saturday afternoon explaining why. (We'll link to it from here).

Enjoy your Friday!
