

Operation New Birmingham presented renderings created by six local architectural firms that dealt with the issue of how to best develop the property located directly across 1st Avenue South from Railroad Park. Check out the images below and offer your thoughts either overall or about a specific one down below.

[Gallery not found]

Return to the original post | Dreaming about across the street from Railroad Park