

We figured that you might be interested in sharing your photos from the winter storm with us. We also figured that you'd like an easier way to do so - and that's why we're going to try this form below.

Just upload the photo along with your name, where it was taken and (if you want) Twitter handle and we'll do the rest...

NOTE: Please submit photos less than 1 MB in size via the upload form below.

[ngg_uploader id = 46]

Of course you could just send them to info@bhamterminal.com as well. Or add them to our Flickr Group or the Magic City Flickr Group and tag them "#alsnomg11" and we'll see about sharing those as well.

Remember to stay warm out there! Looking forward to see what's submitted.
