

Birmingham, AL-based political blog The Progressive Electorate plans to interview congressional candidate (and current Jefferson County Commissioner) Sheila Smoot this evening beginning at 8 p.m. on Daily Kos.

They've already posted three questions they plan to ask during the chat and they're asking for folks to consider submitting others to the thread (thinking it means you may be able to submit your questions as comments to the post announcing tonight's discussion too).
