

A view of the SYSCO warehouse building looking towards Birmingham's city center. Photo credit: Bob Farley/f8photo

Among the many items approved during yesterday's Birmingham city council meeting was the purchase of the SYSCO Food Services warehouse on 1st Avenue South, pictured above, by the city. The property will be purchased for $1,550,000 to make way for the Railroad Reservation Park. Representatives hope that groundbreaking will go on as planned this fall.