

 Councilor Rafferty's proposal to reduce the number of representatives from the City of Birmingham serving on the BJCTA's Transit Advisory Committee (held over for three weeks already) is back on the council agenda today (Item 6). There's also a $22,000 bid to re-carpet Legion Field's skybox (Item 20).

The major item on today's agenda involves the city's storm water management program. Item 14 allows the mayor to enter a contract with Malcolm Pirnie for up to $535,975 to assist with the development of that plan and to help prepare a required report to ADEM. Item 15 puts them under contract (for $89,895) to help address issues brought up during a recent audit of the city's storm water management system.

The recap will be online later today...