While you won't necessarily see this really cool festival staple today, you will get a chance to see (& get) some great art at this year's Artwalk festival, going on until 6 p.m. Those that are wanting a taste of the festival, head on over to Timetable to see some images from last night.

For those of you a little hungry, there's also the National Soul Food Cook-Off taking place at Boutwell Auditorium this afternoon.

The quotes go up tomorrow morning and the t-shirts go on sale Monday!
