

Some of you may have heard that Birmingham police chief Annetta Nunn has recorded Henry Panion's song "We Stand Strong" as a tribute to those that died during the terrorist attacks in September 2001 in New York, Pennsylvania and Washington, DC. For those that didn't hear it, here's a link to the song (mp3 file).

You can also check out the score for the song and this video from Fox 6 earlier in the week.

What do you think?