

New on the radar, the Birmingham Council for Business Ethics is hosting a luncheon 11:30 a.m. Sept. 19 at The Club and the young leaders of Birmingham are invited to attend free. And they'll feed you free too. The only catch is that you have to register today. You can see all the details after the jump including a description of the speaker, Steve Harrison, author of "The Manager's Book of Decencies." RSVP here.

The Birmingham Council for Business Ethics presents

"How Common Decency Leads to Uncommon Success"

We are delighted to invite you to join us for the second program in Birmingham's "Leading With Integrity" series featuring nationally known speakers on issues of ethics in business. The Birmingham Regional Chamber of Commerce, Alabama Gas Corporation, Alabama Power Company, Lee Hecht Harrison, The Moser Group, and Resources Global Professionals are collaborating to produce this series, which began in 2005 as a part of the Southeast regional work of The Southern Institute for Business and Professional Ethics.

Please be our guest on September 19 for a luncheon featuring Steve Harrison, chairman of Lee Hecht Harrison and author of The Manager's Book of Decencies, a definitive guide to building a positive corporate culture. You may attend this luncheon at no charge, but advance registration is required. Click the following link to register electronically:

<http://tinyurl.com/22m9tm>.

Feel free to forward this to interested colleagues as well. However, please be aware that space is limited and RSVPs will be accepted on a first-come basis.