

These two words have created quite a buzz throughout the country in recent years, particularly in the Southeastern United States and currently here in Birmingham. As our series Your Questions, Their Answers continues today, the candidates tell you their hopes for the future of the city as well as their plans to encourage dialogue and true cooperation in our region to help move it forward.

Regional cooperation

Their vision for The Magic City

Answers include Smitherman's response to The Birmingham News on her vision for the city.

You can always visit the Election '07 section of the site to learn more information.

NOTE: While it is our intention to have the candidates pages completed by the end of the day, our intentions to attend this evening's forum at WorkPlay may make that impossible. If the pages are not up by 4 p.m. this evening, assume that the pages will be turned on by 9 a.m. tomorrow morning. All ten (10) candidates will have profile pages.
