

I'm sure you've noticed the big image of the black T-shirt that has graced you in the center column if you've visited the front page sometime during the last two weeks. Well, if you were to visit the page today, you'll notice that we've changed the image. If you click on it, you'll also noticed that we've added some additional information.

For those that have still not clicked on the image yet, we've decided to donate $1 from the proceeds of every T-shirt sale will now go to an area charity. The local charity will change quarterly. Now go on over there and find out who the first recipient of the quarterly check will be.

NOTE: There will be other shirt colors available in the coming days... stay tuned!
