

We've done two polls previously on the main site during the course of this year's mayoral campaign but they were not necessarily very scientific. They did provide us with an idea of who readers were following. But we always want more info...

So we decided to do one that was much more informative to readers of the site. We're hoping that we get an idea of not only what folks in town think, but what people outside think of this race. Click here to get started.

You've got until 3 p.m. Friday, September 28th to take part. We'll share the results later that evening.

By the way, if you're not already registered to vote, that's also the last day that you can register; click here to download the voter registration form and get to it!
