

No, this photo doesn't catch a catfish sliding into East Lake Park's namesake early Wednesday afternoon. There were several folks present though who did see several fish dive in as the lake was stocked for Birmingham's 14th annual Family Fishing Rodeo this Saturday, June 4. They were delivered by Stearn's Fish Farm of Wetumpka, AL.

It's the largest community fishing event in the state, drawing thousands to Birmingham's eastern area. It's also an opportunity to participate in giveaways and learn more about local non-profits and community organizations. It'll take place from 8 a.m. - 1 p.m.

If you want a better idea of what it looks like when you load a few thousand pounds of fish into a city lake, check out this video via al.com from last year's stocking.
